Claims 1-18 are presented for examination.

The amendments and remarks filed on October 17, 2005 have been received and entered.

Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 as being unpatentable over Laties et al. (U.S. Patent 5,888,493) in view of Gwon et al. (U.S. Patent 6,164,282) and Swaya (U.S. Patent 5,888,493) for the reasons set forth on pages 2-4 of the office action of April 21, 2005.

Applicant's arguments and remarks have been carefully considered, but are not deemed to be persuasive. Applicant in his remarks argues that the prior art does not teach all the elements of the claimed invention. Applicant is reminded that Gwon et al. teach the addition of a cellulose derivative and other components as claimed in claim 17 to a pirenzepine compound. The above reference also teaches that such composition can be used in any pharmaceutically acceptable form. The determination of different forms of a pharmaceutical agent is considered to be within the skill of the artisan in the absence of evidence to the contrary. The relied upon references make clear that the use of a gel in ophthalmic field is old and well known. Applicant has presented no evidence to establish that the gel form of pirenzepine is advantages over the other forms used by the prior art. Thus, for the above reasons the prior rejection sustains.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 1618

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
